

ROCKOKO is a Ukrainian instrumental Band which identifies itself with Symphonic Rock, Symphotronica. The Band also performs in such genres as Acoustic, Pop, Dance, D&B, Metal, Jazz. The foundation for the band's success is the original way of arranging authorial compositions and popular hits.

ROCKOKO has created the concert program with the Symphonic Orchestra; had two All-Ukrainian tours; performances in the largest concert halls of Ukraine; video-shootings of the concerts and their broadcasting on TV; concerts abroad: Poland, Hungary, Germany.

BIO

ROCKOKO Band was created in 2012 by three musicians: Michael Romanyshyn (violinist and composer), Ihor Protsyk (cellist) and Volodymyr Kotlyarov (cellist and composer). First drafts of ROCKOKO included own arranging of popular hits. As creative personalities, the members of the Band had burning desire to create something different from others. The result of it is a mixed composition which consists of two hits: Queen - «We will rock you» and Michael Jackson - «They don't really care about us». Soon such mixes became a highlight of ROCKOKO.

Then it was time that the Band members felt the strength and new ideas for creating their own music. It was a glorious feeling as they saw the way to express their original vision, own thoughts and emotions. One more significant reason was that it is a method to leave behind something really worthwhile.

ROCKOKO & ORCHESTRA

In 2016, in order to enrich the sounding and diversify the repertoire of ROCKOKO, the idea of creating a program with the Symphony Orchestra first came up. The ROCKOKO & Orchestra tandem conveys the unstoppable energy of music for sure. The ROCKOKO Band and more than 40 musicians of the orchestra create an unforgettable evening show which touches the feelings of even the most demanding admirers of Instrumental Music.

There are many gigs with different Ukrainian orchestras in band biography: Ukrainian Radio Orchestra, Ternopil Philharmonic Symphony Orchestra, INSO-Lviv, Luhansk Philharmonic Symphony Orchestra, «Polyphonia» National Chamber Orchestra, Lviv Jazz Orchestra.
